

Authorized Representatives

The following people are authorized to serve as contacts for the employer, to receive and provide information on behalf of the employer, and to act on behalf of the employer for purposes related to the NC 401(k) and / or NC 457 Plans. You must provide at least one primary human resources representative and one payroll representative; however, the same person can serve in both capacities. A human resources representative's duty includes answering questions related to a participant's employment status. A payroll representative's duties include assistance with the contributions and loan files.
